

Terms and Conditions of Use Library Computers and Public Wi-Fi

By accessing the Library's public computers or Wi-Fi, I acknowledge and agree to the following:

- I agree to abide by all Council user guidelines, rules, and regulations.
- I acknowledge that I must not conduct pornographic, offensive, unlawful, or criminal activities.
- I acknowledge that I must not access inappropriate material that degrades any specific gender, ethnic, racial, or other group.
- I will ensure that all content accessed is appropriate for a public place. I will be sensitive to the values and beliefs of others when accessing potentially controversial information or images.
- I understand that if I am found to be in breach of these terms and conditions, the Library reserves the right to direct me to leave the Library, to direct that I do not re-enter the Library for a specified period, and to report any unlawful conduct to the relevant authorities.
- I acknowledge that I will take full responsibility for any content that I knowingly or unknowingly access on this computer.
- I agree to abide by all applicable laws regarding copyright.
- I acknowledge that I am over 18, or if under 18, have internet permission granted on my library card, or I am accompanied by my parent or guardian.
- I understand that I have a maximum of 2 logins per day using the Library computers, which includes a total of 2 hours per day on weekdays, and 1 hour per day on weekends.
- I agree to log in to the Library computers using only my own library card or an immediate family members' library card (with their permission).
- I will ensure that other users are not disturbed, by keeping noise levels low and using earphones, and I will not use a mobile phone while using the Library computers.
- I understand that internet security cannot be guaranteed, and that Goulburn Mulwaree Council is not responsible for any infection, damage, or loss of any data or equipment.
- I acknowledge that Goulburn Mulwaree Council is not responsible for any loss of data or damage to any storage devices or other devices attached to Library computers.
- I am aware that any personal information transactions made using this computer may not be secure. The Library is not responsible for any breaches of data or privacy that may occur while using this computer
